Chennai is the capital city of Tamil Nadu. Chennai was earlier known as Madras. Madras was the official name of the city till 1996. Chennai is known as the "Health capital of India". Chennai is known for its blend of ancient traditions and modern influences, its vibrant culture, and its status as a major IT hub. It's a city where you can experience historical temples, stunning beaches, and bustling streets, all while being immersed in a rich cultural heritage

Chennai is renowned for its diverse and flavorful street food scene, with dishes like idli, sambar, and dosa being particularly popular. Idli is a steamed rice cake, often enjoyed with sambar, a lentil and vegetable stew. Dosa, a savory pancake, comes in various forms, including the famous masala dosa, which is stuffed with potatoes and spices. Murukku, a crunchy, deep-fried snack, and Kothu Parotta, a delicious and filling dish made from parotta, are also popular street foods.
